

1977 Rabbi Indich Honored for Twenty-five Years of Service

HEADS ABOVE THE CROWD

RABBI DAVID I. INDICH

Rabbi David I. Indich of the Agudas Israel Temple, Golf Manor, will be honored on the 25th anniversary of his ordination at a testimonial dinner at 7 p.m. May 1 at the Netherland Hilton.

The guest speaker will be Rabbi Walter Wurzbarger, president of the Rabbinical Council of America.

Rabbi Indich was assigned to the temple shortly after graduation from the Rabbinical College of Telshe, Cleveland.

He is president of the Tri-State Region of the Rabbinical Council of America.

He holds a master's degree in education and a degree in child guidance from Xavier University.

He is a member of the executive committee of the Jewish Federation, the national committee on Torah education and the Jewish community relations committee. He serves as chaplain at the U.S. Veteran's Administration Hospital.
