

11/21/89

Sent by: Ellen Wittow

(w) 821-5723

(h) 221-2773

FOR ISSUE OF NOVEMBER 30, 1989

Shelly Lang, well known New York singer and orchestra leader, will perform a selection of Hebrew, Yiddish and English songs as part of the program dedicating the Albert and Sadye Harris Memorial Sanctuary of North Avondale Synagogue, Sunday December 10th from 2-4 PM.

The program and the reception following it, will honor the memory of Albert and Sadye Harris and the generosity of their daughter Bernice and her husband Arthur Friedman in making this beautiful project possible.

Said Dr. Paul Nathan, Chairman of the Dedication, " The entire room has been renovated and decorated in a tasteful and simple manner in keeping with our lovely turn-of-the-century building. Remarks and personal reminiscences by Arthur and Alan Friedman will be followed by a brief program program by the versatile and widely known performer, Shelly Lang. A reception will follow in the Social Hall. We hope friends and relatives of the Harris' andwell as well-wishers <sup>Avrohom</sup> from the entire Jewish community will join us for this occasion."

According to Rabbi ~~Avrohom~~ Shinnail, spiritual leader of the congregation, " North Avondale Synagogue is ;fulfilling a true need in the Jewish community. It provides the warmth and tradition of an Orthodox Synagogue for the Jewish families in this area. Classes and Shabbatons for all levels and ages are being held. Our religious services, educational programs and holiday celebrations attract wide and diverse participation and support. "

For further information, call the synagggue at 281-3243.  