Some 25 members of the Tri-Synagogue Chapter of the National Conference of Synagogue Youth attended the Central East Regional convention in Columbus April 21-23.

Some 500 attended. The local group won four regional awards, more than any other chapter. They received citation for best chapter programming, the highest award.

Judy Feldman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Feldman, won the award for NCSYer of the year. She is president of the local Tri-Synagogue Chapter and was selected regional financial secretary.

Debbie Deutch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Deutch, was inducted into the Ezra Lightman Honor Society for Regional Meritorious Leadership.

In the past the group has received the Chapter of the Region award as finest chapter in the Region.

The Tri-Synagogue activities are an experiment in a cooperative effort of Orthodox Congregations in Cincinnati to work jointly in fields of common interest. Golf Manor, New Hope and Roselawn Congregations, are members.

The American Israelite is the oldest English-Jewish weekly in America.
