SISTERHOOD NEWS

Our annual Anniversary Dinner, it was the 41st, held on March 2, at the Synagogue, was a great success. The cold weather and sorry to say, sicknesses, held many dear members away. We were thinking of them and wish all those a speedy recovery. We were very happy to see younger members in the forefront which gives us the assurance that NEW HOPE will go on. Everyone tried his best to make this annual event an unforgettable one. We hope that G-d willing next year the attendance will be larger for a warm, friendly, memorable evening.

A COMBINED SISTERHOOD LUNCHEON "LET'S GET TOGETHER" was held on January 16 at New Hope Synagogue, hosted by Roselawn and New Hope Sisterhood under the able chairmanship of our Flora Rabenstein. It was attended also by members of Golf Manor and Ohav Shalom Sisterhoods. The program, enjoyed by everyone, had as main feature the honorable Mayor, J. Kenneth Blackwell, introduced by Rabbi Max Newman, of Roselawn Synagogue, Dvar Torah by Rabbi Bernard Greenfield, Ohav Shalom Synagogue, and Welcome Greetings by our Rev. M. Rabenstein. The Lunch, prepared by New Hopers and Roselawners, was tasty and ample, and the musical rendition by students of Cincinnati Hebrew Day School and the Trio of Mrs. Barbara Selya, Atarah Jablonsky and Mrs. Lefkowitz added to the completion of the successful affair. Assisting in the preparations were Flora Rabenstein, Shirley Cantor, Ruth Teitz, Ruth Kröpveld, Edith Schreiber, Edith Hess, Meta Altman, Bella Silberman, Frances Loewenstein, Claire Feldman, Cloty Gutman, Chava Rabenstein, Johanna Rabenstein, Lia Wollenreich, Betty Bruckman, Roslyn Newburger, Julia Lisner, Adele Cohen, Sylvia Wise, Dorothea Kaplan, Betty Epstein, Miriam Epstein, Lil Nathan, Anne Butchkes, Lillian Greenfield.

On Feb. 20, the Women's Branch of United Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America held a regional Luncheon meeting at Beth Jacob Congregation in Columbus. Eight of our sisterhood members enjoyed the day together with 36 members of Golf Manor, Roselawn and Ohav Shalom Sisterhoods. We traveled by chartered bus, the beautiful Synagogue and the warm reception of the Columbus Beth Jacob Sisterhood put all attendants, also Sisterhoods from Dayton and Toledo, altogether about 150 women, in a festive joyful mood. The luncheon was something special and the inspiring talk by Mrs. Carol Lister, Regional Director of the Anti-Defamation League, outstanding. We can be proud of our leading Women!

Make a note of June 11, when we will have the opportunity to go to Indianapolis for a meeting of the Women's Branch. Debbie Fox is the dynamic President.

The CHANUKAH PARTY was a very enjoyable affair thanks to Jack and Chava Rabenstein.

Dr. and Mrs. Roger Selya, Dr. and Mrs. Benny Kraut, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Silberman, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Meyers, Mesdames: Ruth Kropveld, Hazel Rauneker, Flora Rabenstein, Johanna Rabenstein, Edith Schreiber, Bella Silberman, Ruth Teitz, Blanche Vigran, Lia Wollenreich, Helen Zaguli.

The young violinists, three to eight years old, accompanied by Dr. Roger Selya and the humorous talk by Rabbi David Rosen on Israel, were enjoyed by all.

An Intra-Faith Luncheon for all Orthodox, Conservative and Reform Sisterhoods was held at Rockdale Temple on Ridge Road on November 14. The large attendance showed that unity makes strong!

Shachar Chapter of NCSY held a mini-convention the weekend of January at our Synagogue. Chapter members led the services. The program included Friday night dinner, Shabbos lunch, Seuda Shlishith and Sunday morning breakfast. Learning sessions with Jack Rabenstein, Rabbi Stuart Lavenda and Paul Koenigsberg were held Shabbos afternoon. On Motzoey Shabbos Ruach and surprise entertainment with "Mizmor Shir" was enjoyed by all attendants.

To observe the group was a refreshing experience for older congregation members.

SHACHAR CHAPTER

As our chapter leaves 1979 and rolls ahead in 1980, we see in our future, the goals I spoke of in the Rosh Hashanah bulletin. We are fulfilling mitzvahs, learning, and having fun, which is pulling us closer to "The Chapter of the Year."

In the new year, our Beis Midrash nights, which are special events, combine learning and fun into an excellent program. Other events include Mini-Conventions that are a lot of fun, and the usual mixed events (movies, etc.).

NCSY has seen the rise of my band "MIZMOR SHIR", now in final rehearsing. Thanks to The Shul we have a place to rehearse and become better, in order to spread ruach throughout the Jewish communities, if needed we are there, because as long as there are people to spread ruach to, we'll spread it. As we say in NCSY: "Don't keep the faith, pass it around," and that is exactly what we do!

Again, in short, I would like to thank New Hope Congregation for all their help and continuous support. NCSY is proud to be affiliated with The Shul. KOSHEREN PESACH and CHAG SAMEACH!

Kesser Torah Chai!

MARK THESE IMPORTANT DATES ON YOUR CALENDAR

Yom Ha'atzmaut Celebration of the Cincinnati community will start Thursday, April 7 at 8 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center with a MEMORIAL PROGRAM for those who laid down their lives for the independence of the Jewish State and will continue Sunday, April 20. (Watch the American Israelite for further information.)

SELLING CHOMETZ

PURPOSE: The Torah being concerned about the economic welfare of the Jewish people, has provided for one contingency where, due to the laws of Passover, a loss might result through the destruction of large quantities of Chometz, by allowing us to sell it to a non-Jew. Inasmuch as all dishes used during the year contain Chometz, every household is vitally concerned.

Method: By the legal transfer of Chometz property to a non-Jew, we are no longer the owners of it, and, therefore, do not carry any responsibility for it.

The legal intricacies covering such a transfer of property are many and involved, and only an orthodox Rabbi should be entrusted with its execution, in the same manner in which we entrust our secular legal affairs to a trained and bonafied lawyer.

Time of ending eating Chometz, is Monday, March 31, 9:55 a.m. The latest time to remove Chometz is 11:05 a.m. Pesach is over Tuesday, April 8, at 7:43 p.m.
