

The Garden of Eden was Paradise ; it was full of animals, flowers and trees bearing succulent fruit.

Now the serpent was more wily than any other animal. He said to Eve :

"Did not G-d say that you could eat the fruit of all the trees of the garden ?" Eve replied :

"Only the Tree of Knowledge is forbidden to us by G-d, lest we eat of it and die".

But the serpent was so clever...