

ENJOYING THEIR JEWISHNESS—A gay Purim party at the Bureau Nursery School. Children of orthodox and reform parents alike receive their training here.

THE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION OF THE PRICE HILL TAL-MUD TORAH.

Officers: Mrs. Jacob Mandell, president; Mrs. Sol Finkelstein, vice-president; Mrs. Nathan Kaplan, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Gutin, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack Marmer, corresponding secretary.

THE BUREAU NURSERY SCHOOL.

Head teacher: Sylvia C. Grad; teacher—Hilda Phillips; assistant—Rose Kahn.

THE P. T. A. OF THE BUREAU NURSERY SCHOOL.

Officers: Mrs. Benjamin Dombor, president; Mrs. Morris Weintraub, vice-president and secretary; Mrs. Jules Oppenheimer, treasurer.

HEBREW INSTITUTE AND BETH AM—at Reading Road and Elizabeth Place, Bond Hill. Operates a weekday afternoon Hebrew School, Sunday classes and a Nursery School, and conducts a variety of youth and adult activities. Total number of pupils—approximately 155. Children in Nursery School—32. Officers: Milton Wacksman, president; Maurice Schulzinger, first vice-president; Joseph Cohen, second vice-president; Ben F. Miller, treasurer; Irene Wander, recording secretary; Harvey Zwerin, secretary; Mrs. Joseph Cohen, financial secretary; Dr. A. M. Wigser, executive vice-president; Dr. Albert A. Baden, chairman of executive committee. Staff of Hebrew School: Rabbi Paul Rosenfeld, rabbi of The Hebrew Institute and Beth Am, in charge; teachers: Rachel Bargman, Rabbi Arthur Green, Rabbi Harry Mandelcorn, and Orah Wigser.

THE BUREAU CHORAL SOCIETY—Cantor Emil Rosen, conductor; Herman Hersh, associate conductor; Marcella R. Segal, accompanist. Officers: Isaac Goldberg, president; Carl K. Tepper, treasurer; Marcella R. Segal, secretary; Jack Brisker, librarian.

In addition to the affiliates enumerated above, various orthodox and reform schools in the community are served by the Bureau of Jewish Education.