HILLEL PERFORMS FOR B'NAI BRITH
WOMEN

On Wednesday evening December 15, Amiel Wohl and his motley crew of speakers and entertainers will appear at the Rockdale Temple annex to present a program for the B'nai Brith Women.

Helen Hauser will explain to the group "What Hillel is Today", while Ruth Stein will paint a glowing picture of "Hillel's Future on the Cincinnati Campus".

Amiel Wohl will also have other performers on hand to bring gaiety to the occasion.

HILLEL SUPPORTS JEWISH CENTER FORUM

At the suggestion of the University, Hillel sponsored Dr. Takakawa's lecture, one of a series of talks scheduled by the Jewish Center Forum.

A group under the leadership of Norma Siegel undertook the sale of tickets in the Student Union.

The lecture took place on Thursday, December 9; it was listed in the Hillel Calendar for December.

DANCE TO BE HELD AT STUDENT UNION DEC. 15.

In place of a regular meeting, a Chanukah Party will be held Wednesday, December 15, 7:30 in the evening at the Student Union Snack Bar.

Corinne Wolf, social Committee head, after a meeting with her committee in the Student Union on December 7, announced the detail of the scheduled affair.

Dancing, entertainment, and a grab in the Chanukah spirit will highlight the evening's festivities.

All Jewish students on campus are invited to share in the traditional celebration. The social committee is asking everyone to bring an inexpensive gift or token for the grab bag.

NEW BLOOD ADDED TO HILLEL EXECUTIVE

Ruby Lee is the new Hillel Choir leader and Miriam Sceinbaum has taken charge of Membership. Ruby Lee will welcome anyone interested in participating in the choir. (Continued on page 2)
