

Chorus: Discussion and discussion and discussion.

Voice: (Clearing throat) It's time to get back to the subject.

"Many A New Day"

Chorus: This is the best time to plan our week
This is the best group to do it.
When we all meet here on Thursday night
To make the year run smoothy.
How quickly the time will pass by before we're through.

Think of the way that we planned our dance
And how much fun we had there.
All of the kids there and adults too
To make our tenth successful.
A minyan of years have just past
And we'll still grow.
Many a new ~~xxxxxxx~~ face we'll see
Filled with vitality
Three more years and we'll have our Bar Mitzvah!

(group moves)

Chorus: Friday we have services

Chorus: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, with all thy soul and with all thy might. And these words which I command thee this day shall be upon thy heart. And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children and shalt speak of them when thou sittest in thy house, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. Thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hands and they shall be for front-lets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the doorposts of thy house and upon thy gates. That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.
