

FACULTY

MRS. GENE LEWIS

7th & 8th Grade General Studies

A Masters degree in History from the University of Cincinnati (Taft Teaching Fellowship) and extensive course work in education qualify Mrs. Lewis to serve as supervisory teacher of our General Studies Department. Previously, she served as an Admissions Counselor at the University. She has taught at the Day School for four years.

RABBI AARON RABENSTEIN

4th & 5th Grade Hebrew

Born in Germany, Rabbi Rabenstein attended Telshe Yeshiva and graduated from Kaufman Institute in Cleveland. He received a Masters of Education degree from Xavier University, and is presently completing work toward certification in counseling. He has been with the Day School since 1961.

MRS. SANDOR LIPSCHULTZ

3rd Grade General Studies

Mrs. Lipschultz graduated from Pennsylvania State University with a B.S. in Kindergarten-Elementary Education. She taught third grade and kindergarten in Pennsylvania, before joining the faculty here in 1967.
