

A Poem written by Shiffy Landa, Rabbi Sharfstein's daughter

Majestic, a royal presence, and such a brilliant man,

You are the illustrious king of a most splendid clan.

From around the world you get calls asking for advice,

And you always find the answers; no one is as wise.

To your children you are the ultimate chasid, the ideal,

How do I express our love and the devotion that we feel?

Each time I try thanking you in behalf of our family,

Reflecting, how much you do for us; grateful eternally. Love, Shiffy
